White Cloud is situated in Doniphan County, Kansas, on the west bank of the Missouri River, about two miles below the Nebraska line, 50 miles, by river, from St. Joseph, and 615 from St. Louis. It was named after Ma-hush-kah, or White Cloud, a celebrated Chief of the Iowa tribe of Indians, who died a few years since, near the Mission, in this County. There are now in the town a number of stores and business houses, and others in course of construction. The population is now probably over 300, and increasing daily. The town has merely made a commencement the present season. Next year, there will be a perfect rush of settlers here. We hear from all directions, of persons who contemplate coming here, in the Spring. Among the improvements contemplated for next year, are several mills, a number of fine buildings, a steam ferry boat, and a large number of dwelling houses. Fine business lots can be bought at prices ranging from $300 to Good lots for dwellings can be had for much less.
